

This notice describes how medical information about you may be used and disclosed. These are just highlights.

The full notice may be obtained by calling Millennium at (215) 805-6208.

Millennium Healthcare values you as a customer, and protection of your privacy is very important to us. In conducting our business, we will create and maintain records that contain protected health information about you and the prescription drugs provided to you as a member of our prescription drug plans.

SCOPE

This notice applies to Millennium Administrators members, their dependents, and those who are associated with our PBMs.

USES AND DISCLOSURES

As explained in our complete privacy notice, we may use and share protected health information about you:

- For treatment, payment, and business and administrative activities,
- To inform you about health-related products and services,
- For medical research and public health activities.

For other proposed uses or disclosures, except as required by law, we will explain the use or disclosure and seek your permission.

YOUR RIGHTS AND CHOICES

You may:

- Review, copy and ask us to amend certain health information we have about you,
- Ask us for a list of certain disclosures we have made of that information,
- Ask us to deliver health information about you to an alternative address,
- Ask us not to share your health information with certain family members or friends.

Where you have given us permission to use or share your health information, you may change your mind at any time. TO exercise these rights or choices, contact us as indicated below.
